

Maximum Effort

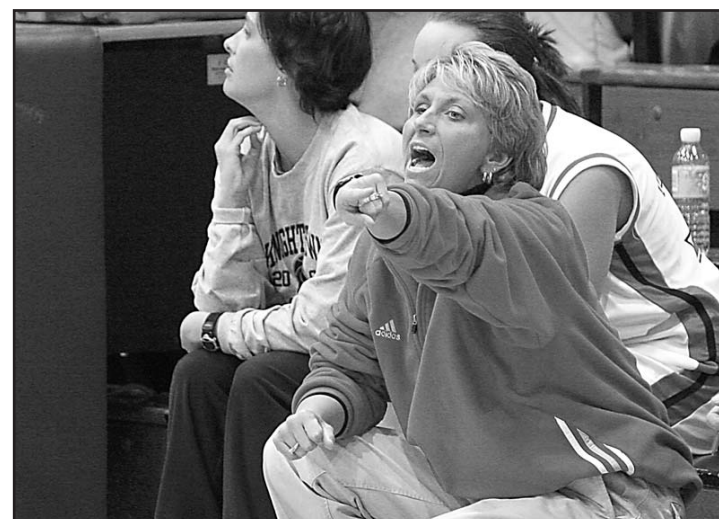

Girls Basketball

Sectional Action

Lady Panthers Control Games Against Muncie Burriss and Frankton, but Falter Against Cross-County Rival Shenandoah

Natosha Hiner, Diana Trautman and Sabrina Hatfield (l-r) battle for a rebound during first round action.

Lady Panther Head Coach Dawn Basicker (left) tells her team to get back on defense. Natosha Hiner and Sabrina Hatfield scramble.

Lady Panther Jocelyn Sturgill (left) spots up a jump shot. Shenandoah Lady Raider Coach Todd Salkoski instructs his team.

Lady Panther Head Coach Dawn Basicker (right) differs with an official during the final game against Shenandoah Saturday night.

Jocelyn Sturgill (above) demonstrates good form on a jump shot taken against the Lady Raiders of Shenandoah. Sabrina Hatfield (above, right) jockeyes for a post position Saturday night. Long faces (far right) tell the story on Knightstown's bench late in the second half of the Shenandoah game. Senior Quila Beckenbaugh (right) gets fouled by a Shenandoah player in first half action Saturday night. The Lady Panthers defeated Muncie Burriss and Frankton en route to a sectional final appearance in which they fell to cross-county rival Shenandoah.

Lady Panther senior Kendra Kopp takes aim on a free throw Saturday night.

Junior Lady Panther Diana Trautman (above) tries to distract her Lady Raider opponent Saturday night at Alexandria-Monroe High School where the sectional tourney was held. Natosha Hiner and Sabrina Hatfield (right) battle for a loose ball with a Shenandoah player. Shenandoah went on to win the sectional championship.

Photos by Eric Cox